MARTIN STADIUM HISTORY

NAME: Clarence D. Martin Stadium and Academic Center

CAPACITY: 35,117

HISTORY

1892—Built as Soldier Field;

1895 (November 9)—WSU defeated Idaho 10-4 in the first football game on Soldier Field;

1902—The field was renamed Rogers Field in honor of the Governor of the State of Washington, John R. Rogers;

1936—Washington State College built a completely new football stadium, but retained the same name; the new stadium was an all-wood structure built on concrete pilings. The field also featured new stands, an enlarged press box and an electronic scoreboard;

1970 (April)—Fire destroyed the south stands; a one-million dollar fund drive began after the decision was made to rebuild the stands rather than relocate or build an entirely new stadium; Dan Martin, a Los Angeles businessman, gave $250,000 to the project with the stipulation the stadium be renamed after his father, Clarence D. Martin. Clarence Martin was Governor of the State from 1933-40;

1972 (summer)—first artificial turf (Astroturf) was installed;

1972 (Sept. 30)—WSU met Utah in the first game played in refurbished Martin Stadium;

1975—New north (student) stands were built;

1978 (fall)—Work began on the academic portion of the complex on the south side with the computer center relocating to the complex upon completion of the project in 1979;

1979 (January)—Another renovation of the stadium began to increase the seating capacity from 27,600 to 40,000; the floor of the stadium was excavated 16 feet to add 12,400 seats; the track was removed from the stadium and relocated to the Bailey Baseball Stadium area directly north of the football complex, while a new baseball stadium was then built just south and east of Friel Court, home of Cougar basketball; the entire project, like the one in 1970, was funded through contributions; gift-in-kind and the purchase of "stadium builder" seat options; it marked the first time a collegiate football stadium had been enlarged by digging down rather than building up; the project was also funded in part by the Martin family, with Charlotte Martin, widow of Dan Martin, giving $250,000 to the project; a SuperTurf artificial surface was installed;

1979 (October 13)—WSU celebrated Homecoming by defeating UCLA 17-13 before a record crowd of 32,651 in the first game played in the enlarged Martin Stadium;

1990 (summer)—Installed the sand-filled Omni-Turf playing surface.

2000 (summer)—Installed FieldTurf in Martin Stadium and on Rogers Field.

2006 —Current stadium renovation began.

2006 (summer)—Replaced FieldTurf in Martin Stadium

2008 —Phase I and II completed.

MARTIN STADIUM

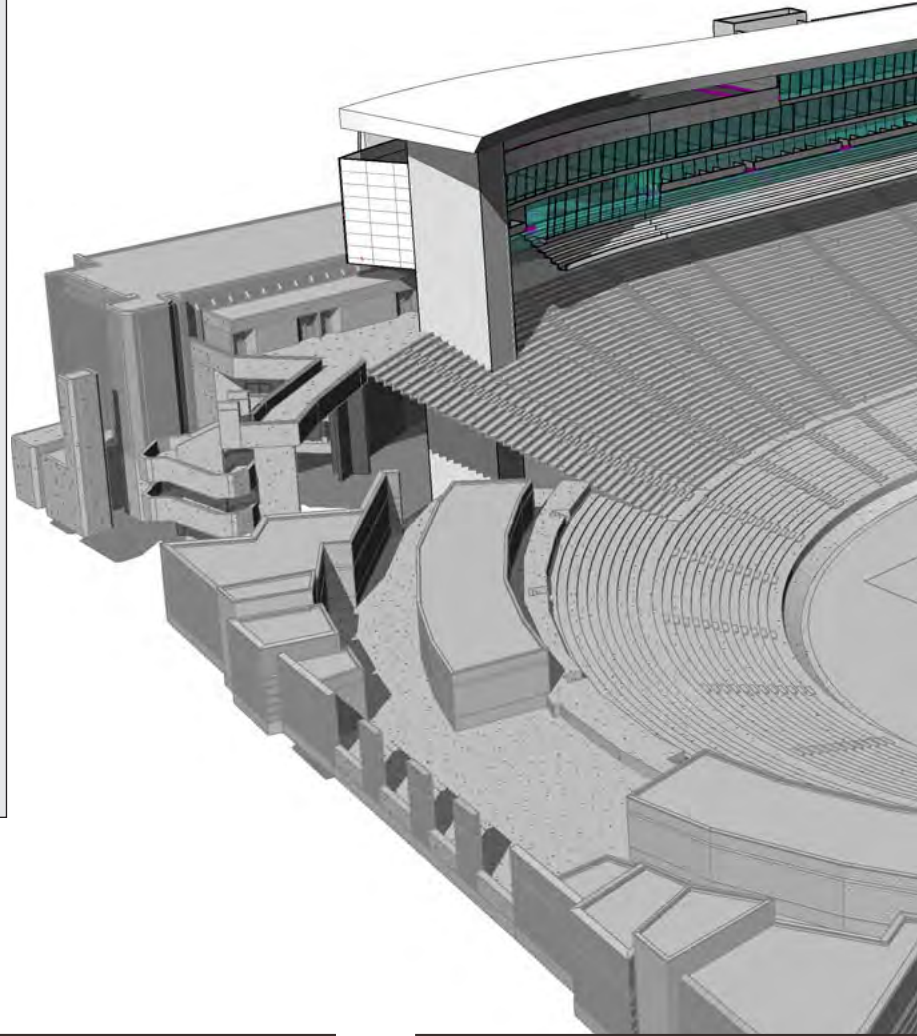

Martin Stadium, home of Cougar Football, and the adjacent Rogers Field, WSU's practice facility, both feature FieldTurf, the closest artificial playing surface to grass. In 2000 WSU became just the second NCAA Division I team to install the latest innovation in artificial playing surfaces. During the summer of 2006 FieldTurf installed its latest product in Martin Stadium, providing WSU players with the very best playing surface available. Rogers Field was resurfaced during the summer of 2010

2011 OUTLOOK

FULLBACK

Washington State University enters the 2011 season with two fullbacks on the roster, redshirt sophomore Jared Byers and redshirt junior Corey Laufasa. Byers emerged midway through the 2009 season as a walk-on freshman from Pullman High School and entered last season's opener at Oklahoma State as the starter. He suffered a season-ending knee injury in that game and enters 2011 atop the depth chart. Laufasa arrived at WSU in the spring of 2009 and had to sit out last season due the NCAA transfer rules.

OFFENSIVE LINE

After back-to-back seasons in which the offensive line was decimated by injuries (2008 and 2009), the Cougars front five looks to step forward in 2010. WSU used four different starting lineups last season compared to 10 the previous year and that continuity resulted in improved line play.

Gone from the unit is center Zack Williams, who was a sixth-round draft pick of the Carolina Panthers in the 2011 NFL Draft, and tackle Micah Hannam, who saw his consecutive starts streak end at 43 due to a concussion. Despite the losses, the Cougars return four seniors on the line and a bevy of young talent to protect quarterback Jeff Tuel.

Leading the way is right guard B.J. Guerra, a fifth-year senior who earned All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors last season while starting all 12 games. Senior Wade Jacobson, who started 11 games at left guard last season, moved to right tackle prior to spring drills and enters fall camp on top of the depth chart. Jacobson will be pushed by junior college transfer Rico Forbes, who arrived in Pullman in January in time for spring drills. Another senior, David Gonzales, started the first seven games at left tackle last season before a broken arm ended his season. Gonzales is back at his familiar position guarding Tuel's blindside. Redshirt freshman Jake Rogers, and redshirt junior Dan Spitz will battle for playing time behind Gonzales.

Sophomore John Fullington moves inside from his left tackle position last season to left guard this year. After gaining his first start in Week 8 last year, Fullington started the final five games last season and along with Gonzales will anchor the left side of the Cougar line. Redshirt freshman Zach Johnson, a converted tight end, give the line good size, strength and depth. Redshirt senior Andrew Roxas enters fall camp as the starting center. Roxas, who has missed all or parts of the past two seasons due to injuries, started at center as a true freshman in 2007. Junior college transfer Taylor Meighen, who participated in spring drills, will battle with Roxas for playing time.

One staple of second-year offensive line coach Steve Morton is that his linemen should be able to play every position along the line. For the second straight spring there was some shuffling of the line and with greater depth than the line has seen in recent years, the offensive line is in position to take another big step forward.

QUARTERBACK

Junior Jeff Tuel firmly entrenched himself as the Cougar starter last year by posting numbers that were comparable or ahead of sophomore campaigns by such Cougar legends as Drew Bledsoe and Ryan Leaf. Equally as important was his presence in the huddle, where he is the unquestioned leader of the offense. Tuel began the season by throwing for more than 200 yards in each of his first nine games and finished the year with 2,780 passing yards. Tuel completed his season fourth in the conference in passing average (231.7 ypg), fourth in total offense (247.8 ypg) and sixth in passing efficiency (133.3).

Redshirt senior Marshall Lobbestael enters fall camp as the No. 2 quarterback. Fully healthy from a knee injury early in his WSU career Lobbestael had a good spring and has plenty of experience should his number get called.

Redshirt sophomore David Gilbertson and redshirt freshman Connor Halliday have bright futures and provide strong depth at the quarterback position.

RUNNING BACK

Fifth-year senior Logwone Mitz enters fall camp on top of the depth chart after rushing for 263 yards and four touchdowns last season. Mitz, who started the final three games last season and six total for the year, has size, speed and can catch the ball out of the backfield. Redshirt freshman Rickey Galvin is an explosive playmaker who suffered a broken arm on his first carry in last year's season-opener at Oklahoma State. Galvin missed the rest of the season but went through spring practice and appears ready to battle Mitz for the starting role.

Junior Carl Winston has rushed for 232 yards in his first two seasons and also has the ability to catch balls out of the backfield. Winston and redshirt sophomore Leon Brooks, who was used last season on special teams, could find more playing time with solid fall showings.

TIGHT END

Redshirt junior Andrei Lintz is the only player listed on the depth chart with playing experience and though the group is young, there is plenty of talent and promise. Lintz has played 19 games in his first two seasons, catching just one pass, a four-yard touchdown last season against Montana State. Redshirt freshman Aaron Dunn is coming off a broken wrist suffered in fall camp last season that forced him to miss the entire year.

Also looking for time in the rotation are true freshmen Mansel Simmons and Max Hersey. At 6-foot-5 Simmons provides a big target for the quarterback while Hersey enters the season after a stellar career at Curtis High School in Tacoma, Wash.

WIDE RECEIVER

Without question the deepest position on the Cougar roster, highlighted by the return of All-Pacific-10 Conference receivers Marquess Wilson and Jared Karstetter. Wilson, a second-team selection and first-team freshman All-American in 2010, set a WSU freshman record with 1,006 receiving yards, leading all freshmen nationally. Karstetter, a senior, is a two-time all-conference receiver and led WSU with 62 catches and seven touchdown receptions in 2010.

Senior Isiah Barton, who started four games last season, had 19 receptions and while playing in all 12 games. Junior Gino Simone, who has started 12 games in his first two seasons, will push Barton for playing time at the flanker position. Also looking for playing time at the position is sophomore Bennett Bontemps and freshman Henry Eaddy, who enrolled at WSU in January and participated in spring practice.

Redshirt freshman Bobby Ratliff and true freshman Isiah Myers, who entered WSU in January and went through spring drills, will back up Wilson on the outside. Ratliff impressed the coaching staff throughout last season while Myers had a solid spring. Both will push for playing time this fall.

On the other side redshirt freshman Kristoff Williams and true freshman Dominique Williams will push Karstetter. Kristoff Williams started off strong last fall before a foot injury three weeks in sidelined him for the season. Healthy once again following a solid spring, he gives Tuel another big target to aim for.

Quarterback Jeff Tuel

DEFENSIVE BACK

Despite being hit with a few key injuries last season the defensive backfield showed marked improvement over the second half of the year. In fall camp sophomore LeAndre Daniels who was expected to battle for a starting safety spot, suffered a neck fracture that ended his career. Also missing time was starting cornerback Daniel Simmons, who suffered a shoulder injury and missed the final three games. Yet with two freshmen and two sophomores starting the majority of the games, the Cougar secondary held four of its final six opponents to 210 passing yards or less.

Counting the top two at both corner and safety positions, the Cougar secondary features two juniors, five sophomores and one freshman. Though young in age, only freshman Brandon Golden did not play in at least half of the games last season.

Sophomore Damante Horton and redshirt sophomore Nolan Washington enter fall camp as WSU's starting cornerbacks. Horton did not start a game last season but was seeing increased playing time prior to a season-ending knee injury suffered against Arizona in Week 8. Washington started all 12 games at left cornerback, registering 32 tackles and intercepting one pass. A pair of redshirt freshmen, Golden and Tracy Clark, are expected to push for playing time behind Washington.

Simmons, a redshirt junior, will battle Horton throughout camp for the starting role as he recovers from last season's injury. Also looking for playing time at the corner position is Spencer Waseem, one of four student-athletes from the state of Florida in their first year at WSU.

At the strong safety position sophomore Deone Bucannon enters the fall as the starter. Bucannon was inserted into the starting lineup in Week 6 and ended up leading the Cougars in tackles en route to freshman All-America honorable mention honors. He had 16 tackles against Arizona and followed that with a 15-tackle performance at Stanford. Behind Bucannon is redshirt sophomore Anthony Carpenter, who played in 11 games last season, recording 13 tackles. Redshirt freshman Tyrone Duckett will also push for playing time.

At the free safety position redshirt junior Tyree Toomer returns after starting all 12 games there last year. Toomer, who finished third on the team in tackles last season, along with redshirt sophomore Casey Locker will patrol the secondary. Redshirt junior Jay Matthews, who did not play last season following shoulder surgery, looks to return to the field to add depth and experience.

LINEBACKER

Another position with a new coach as veteran Chris Tormey joined the staff in January. Though deeper than in previous years, much of the talent is young and athletic and will battle the veterans for playing time.

At the Will position redshirt senior Alex Hoffman-Ellis returns after starting all 12 games last season. Hoffman-Ellis finished second on the team in tackles with 81, 16th in the Pac-10 Conference. Redshirt sophomore Darren Markle and sophomore Eric Oertel will look to push Hoffman-Ellis for playing time.

In the middle, senior Mike Ledgerwood enters fall camp as the starter. Ledgerwood started four games last season, though he missed six total due to injury. Under Tormey's guidance Ledgerwood had a solid spring season and looks to carry that into the fall. Sophomore C.J. Mizell, who started six games in 2010, will push Ledgerwood for playing time. Mizell finished fourth on the team with 57 tackles last season, second-most among Pac-10 freshman. A pair of true freshman, Chester Su'a and Logan Mayes, are looking to break into the rotation. Mayes is the son of running back and Cougar great Rueben Mayes.

At the Sam position redshirt sophomore Sekope Kaufusi, who saw action in 11 games last season, looks to incorporate last season's experiences and take another step forward. Kaufusi will be pushed by a pair of true freshman in Darryl Monroe and Tana Pritchard. Monroe arrived in January and went through spring practice while Pritchard is the nephew of Cougar legend Jack Thompson.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Finding depth along the defensive line will be one of the keys early in fall camp. Incorporating four players in the two-deep with no Division I experience will be the task of first-year defensive line coach Todd Howard, who arrived in Pullman after spending the previous five seasons at UCLA.

Junior Travis Long, who has started all 24 games at defensive end during his first two seasons, is a two-time All-Pac-10 Conference honoree and the leader of the line. Long registered 51 tackles in 2010, including 10.5 tackles-for-loss and five sacks. Junior college transfer Lenard Williams and redshirt junior Skylar Stormo, a converted tight end, will look for playing time. At the other end position will be junior college transfer Ian Knight, who arrived in Pullman in January and went through spring practice. Behind Knight is redshirt sophomore Jordan Pu'u Robinson, who was injured during fall camp and last season and missed the entire year following knee surgery.

At the defensive tackle positions redshirt junior Anthony Laurenzi and redshirt freshman Toni Pole have the edge on the depth chart heading into the fall. Laurenzi started four games last season, all coming late in the year, while Pole impressed the coaching staff during with his ability during spring practice. Also looking to make an impact will be redshirt senior Brandon Rankin and redshirt junior Justin Clayton. Rankin started eight games last season while Clayton had three starts for Bernard Wolfgramm, who was lost to graduation. Redshirt junior Steven Hoffart and true freshman T.J. Polai will also work to make the rotation.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The Cougars will look to replace all-conference punter, and Ray Guy Award finalist, Reid Forrest, four-year starting long snapper Zach Enyeart and kicker Nico Grasu, as all three graduated last year.

Looking to fill Forrest's shoes will be redshirt punter Dan Wagner. A converted quarterback, Wagner backed-up Forrest last season and connected on a 51-yard effort against Arizona, his only punt of the season.

Sophomore Andrew Furney took over the field goal duties last season and connected on three-of-five field goals including a long of 51 against California. Furney also was successful on all 18 of his extra point attempts.

Redshirt junior Zach Koepp is looking to step in for Enyeart and will need to demonstrate throughout fall camp that he deserves the role.

2011 COACHING STAFF

Paul Wulff

Head Coach

Fourth Season

Paul Wulff enters his fourth season on the Cougar sideline after being named Washington's State's 31st head coach, Dec. 10, 2007. With his appointment Wulff became the first WSU football letterwinner and graduate to lead the Cougars since Phil Sarboe served as head coach from 1945-49.

With three full recruiting classes under his belt heading into the 2011 campaign, Wulff has the Cougars on the rise following three years of rebuilding a program from the ground up. The end of 2010 saw a glimpse of what is coming as WSU earned its first Pacific-10 Conference road win under Wulff, a 31-14 victory at Oregon State. The following week WSU dropped a heartbreaker in the Apple Cup, falling to Washington 35-28. The back-to-back games with 28-plus points showed the offense has come miles from even the 2009 season.

A 1990 graduate of WSU and a four-year letterwinner, Wulff's first season leading the Cougars proved difficult as the transition to a new head coach combined with numerous injuries resulted in a 2-11 record. WSU's lone conference win came in dramatic fashion as the Cougars needed a last-second field goal in regulation, and again in double overtime, to defeat Washington 16-13 in the Apple Cup.

Wulff's second season was once again marred by injuries, yet progress was being made as 13 freshmen and 23 players overall made their first-collegiate starts. The bright spot of the year came in week three as WSU fought back from a 13-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat SMU in overtime, 30-27.

Prior to Washington State, Wulff spent the previous 15 seasons at Eastern Washington University, the final eight as head coach. There he amassed a record of 53-40 while his current 11-year head coaching record stands at 58-72. During his eight-year head coaching tenure Wulff was named Big Sky Conference Coach of the Year three times (2001, 2004, 2005) and led the Eagles into the Football Championship Subdivision playoffs three times in his final four seasons.

In 2007 he guided the Eagles to a 9-4 mark, including a quarterfinal appearance at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision Playoffs, falling to two-time defending champion Appalachian State. It marked the seventh time in his eight years at Eastern that his teams posted winning records.

"Obviously this has been a dream of mine since I joined the coaching profession," said Wulff upon his hiring. "It is my alma mater, a university with great tradition and a program I feel very strongly about. WSU is an important place in my development as a human being with respect to the university culture. Being named head coach is the biggest honor I have ever received and I am excited about the opportunity.

"Twenty-two years ago, in February of 1985, I signed a letter of intent to Washington State University. I was obligated to that, and I committed to it, and I chose this university over five other Pac-10 schools at that time. I am back 22 years later, and I am committed for another five years. I will make the most of it and do everything in my power to create an environment that everyone who is a Cougar can be proud of.

"It's going to take some work," Wulff continued. "There is some building we need to do and some culture changes we need to make. We need to put ourselves in a position where everybody can be proud of the student-athletes in this program both on and off the field on a consistent basis."

Wulff began his coaching career at EWU in 1993 as a volunteer assistant working with the offensive line. He was named offensive line/strength coach the following season and spent four years in the position before being promoted to offensive coordinator/offensive line/strength coach in 1998.

Following two seasons as the team's offensive coordinator, Wulff was named head coach prior to the 2000 season. He guided the Eagles to six-straight winning seasons and seven overall during his eight-year tenure.

Wulff's 2005 team was loaded with experience, talent and leadership, featuring a group of seniors that included the Big Sky's Offensive and Defensive MVP's (Erik Meyer and Joey Cwik), and featured a trio of All-Americans (Meyer, Eric Kimble and Matt Alfred). Meyer would go on to win the Walter Payton Award as the best football player in the Football Championship Subdivision. Together, Meyer and Kimble rewrote Eastern's record book as they combined for 27 school records and four Big Sky marks. Meyer set a FCS record for passing efficiency rating (166.47 with 10,261 yards, 84 touchdowns, just 17 interceptions and a .657 completion rate), while Kimble's 46 touchdown grabs ranked second in FCS history behind the 50 of legendary Jerry Rice. The Eagles finished 7-5 and won the Big Sky title with a 5-2 record before losing to eventual national runner-up Northern Iowa in the first round of the playoffs.

The 2004 season was also special, even after the Eagles opened the season 0-2. Eastern won eight of its next nine games - most by substantial margins - as the Eagles closed the year with a 51-44 overtime victory at Montana State to secure a place in the playoffs. Quarterback Erik Meyer was named the league's Offensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Walter Payton Award. Senior offensive tackle Michael Roos joined Meyer, wide receiver Eric Kimble and guard Rocky Hanni as All-Americans, with Roos eventually being taken in the second round of the NFL draft by the Tennessee Titans.

In 2004, Wulff's squad finished 9-4 and advanced to the quarterfinals of the playoffs. The crowning glory came when the Eagles knocked off No. 1-ranked and top-seeded Southern Illinois in the first round.

Statistically, the 2004 and 2005 teams were nearly identical with each finishing the year ranked fourth in FCS in total offense. In 2005 the Eagles averaged 477.8 yards per game, and were 14th in scoring (35.0). A year earlier the Eagles averaged 475.5 yards and 37.5 points per game to rank sixth.

Wulff coached 21 players to 54 Football Championship Subdivision (formerly Division I-AA) All-America honors in his first seven years at the helm of the EWU program, and two more of his players were named to the Sports Network's 2007 FCS All-America team at the conclusion of last year. Of the 21 players to earn All-America recognition, 15 have been offensive linemen.

Additionally, Wulff has mentored 15 players who have earned 18 total CoSIDA Academic All-District VIII honors and a total of 131 All-Big Sky Conference Academic team members.

As a student-athlete and four-year starter at center for the Cougars from 1986-89, Wulff was an All-America honoree himself as a senior, earning honorable mention accolades from The Sporting News. Wulff started at center under three different coaches after redshirting in 1985. He played for Jim Walden in 1986, Dennis Erickson from 1987-88 and Mike Price in 1989. He was also the starting center on WSU's 1988 Aloha Bowl championship team.

After a successful collegiate career Wulff had a brief pro career as a center after graduating from WSU in 1990. He signed a free agent contract with the New York Jets, but was released after injuring an ankle and a rib in the preseason. He played in spring 1991 with Raleigh-Durham of the World League, then played in spring 1992 with New York-New Jersey.

A 1985 graduate of Davis High School in Davis, Calif., Wulff played for three different coaches while he was at WSU. He redshirted in 1985 and started four games at guard in 1986 under Jim Walden.

Dennis Erickson directed the program in 1987 and 1988 with Wulff as his starting center both years. In 1988, the Cougars were victorious in the Aloha Bowl as Wulff earned honorable mention All-Pacific-10 Conference honors.

Under Mike Price in 1989, Wulff earned second-team all-conference honors and was an honorable mention selection on The Sporting News All-America squad. He was also WSU's long snapper during his stay there.

Wulff was born Feb. 25, 1967, in Woodland, Calif. He and his wife Sherry have a daughter, Katie, and two sons, Max and Sam.

Chris Ball

Assistant Head Coach
Defensive Coordinator
Safeties

Fourth Season

Chris Ball begins his fourth season as Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Coordinator/Safeties.

Last season Ball oversaw a Cougar defense that took big steps forward from the 2009 campaign, allowing 50 fewer yards and holding opponents to eight fewer points per game. That included a 31-14 win at Oregon State in which the Cougar defense held the Beavers to their lowest home offensive output of the season.

Ball arrived at WSU after spending the 2007 season as secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh under head coach Dave Wannstedt. During his only campaign the Panthers ranked fourth nationally in pass defense (167.3 ypg) and seventh in total defense (297.7 ypg).

Prior to that Ball served four seasons coaching the secondary at the University of Alabama, having moved from Pullman when Mike Price was named head coach at Alabama following the 2002 season. While at Alabama, Ball coached a Crimson Tide secondary that in 2004 led the nation in pass defense, allowing just 113.1 passing yards per game. That same year Alabama ranked second in pass efficiency defense.

The following season the Alabama secondary ranked fifth in both pass defense (160.8 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (97.8 rating), and the Crimson Tide ranked second nationally in total defense. In 2006 Ball oversaw the progress of free safety Roman Harper, who earned All-SEC honors and was a semifinalist for the Jim Thorpe Award, presented annually to the nation's top defensive back.

From 2000-02 Ball served under Price coaching WSU's defensive backs, mentoring such Cougar greats as Lamont Thompson, Jason David, Marcus Trufant and Erik Coleman. During his three seasons WSU's defense compiled 56 interceptions, including 26 during the 2001 campaign, which tied for second nationally. That season Thompson set a WSU single-season record and led the Pacific-10 Conference with 10 interceptions en route to All-America honors.

The following season Trufant earned first-team All-Pac-10 and second-team All-America honors under the tutelage of Ball. Trufant, who was drafted 11th overall by the Seahawks in 2003, was part of a secondary that included three other current NFL players: David (New Orleans), Coleman (Atlanta) and Hamza Abdullah (Denver).

The St. Louis, Mo., native and 1981 graduate of Webster Grove High played football at Missouri Western State College and later served as a graduate assistant and defensive coordinator at his alma mater.

The 1985 All-American defensive back coached at both Northeast Missouri State (1986-87) and Akron (1987-88) before joining Price's staff in 1989. He coached at Coffeyville Community College (1990-94), Western Oregon State College (1995-96) and Missouri Western State (1997-98). Prior to joining the Cougar staff in 2000, Ball spent the 1999 season as defensive coordinator for Idaho State Head Coach Larry Lewis.

Ball and his wife, Tandi, had a son, Brennan, who plays baseball at Washington State, and two daughters, Abigail and Grace.

Todd Howard

Defensive Line

First Season

Todd Howard joined the Cougar Football staff as defensive line coach Feb. 10, 2011.

Prior to arriving in Pullman, Howard spent five seasons as the defensive line coach/associate head coach, defense at UCLA. There he coached All-Americans Justin Hickman and Brian Price, the latter earning 2009 Pacific-10 Conference Defensive Player of the Year honors. This past season he mentored true freshmen Cassius Marsh and Owamagbe Odighizuwa, both earning 2010 All-Pac-10 Freshmen honors from Rivals.com.

Howard spent the previous three seasons (2003-05) in the National Football League with the Jacksonville Jaguars, serving as assistant defensive line coach. He assisted the defensive coaching staff in all aspects of game preparation, including scouting reports, the statistical analysis of opponents' tendencies and the preparation of playbooks.

Howard has 14 years of experience coaching in college and five in the NFL, in addition to having played in the NFL for two seasons. He spent three seasons (2000-2002) as the linebackers coach at Louisiana Tech. Prior to that, he was a defensive assistant for two years (1998-1999) with the St. Louis Rams, who won the Super Bowl in Howard's second season. With the Rams, he assisted with the linebackers in the area of pass-rushing techniques, as well as working on defensive game preparation, film evaluation and quality control.

For one month prior to joining the Jaguars, Howard was the associate head coach and co-defensive coordinator at Southwest Texas State. He began his coaching career in 1991 at Texas A&M and was a member of three Southwest Conference champion coaching staffs. He coached at Grinnell (Iowa) College from 1994 through 1997, and served as the defensive coordinator in 1996 and 1997. In addition, he was a member of the NFL's minority coaching program with the Washington Redskins in their 1997 training camp, helping on defense.

Howard was a third-round draft choice of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1987 and played in the NFL for two seasons as an inside linebacker and on the special teams. He played for the Barcelona Dragons of the World League in 1991 and was on injured reserve throughout the 1992 season. Howard was an all-conference and honorable mention All-America at Texas A&M, where he started at linebacker for three seasons (1984-86) on teams which won a pair of conference titles.

A 1991 graduate of Texas A&M with a degree in sociology, Howard received his master's degree in human resources from the same university in 1995. He has three children, Trey, David and Ava.

Mike Levenseller

Wide Receivers

20th Season

The senior statesman on the Cougar coaching staff, Mike Levenseller begins his 20th year on the Cougar sideline where he serves as wide receivers coach on Paul Wulff's staff.

Levenseller has been on the Cougar staff since the beginning of the 1992 season, when he began working with Cougar wide receivers under then-head coach Mike Price. Prior to the 2001 season, Levenseller added offensive coordinator duties to his day-to-day work with wide receivers. As the offensive coordinator, the Cougar pass offense finished in the top 21 nationally each season, including eighth in 2007, 10th in 2001 and 13th in 2002. WSU finished in the top 20 nationally in total offense in each of his first two years as coordinator, including an eighth-place finish in 2005.

Levenseller and eight other receivers he has coached comprise WSU's single-season top 10 receiving yardage list, including Brandon Gibson, who set the single-season record with 1,180 receiving yards in 2007. Under Levenseller's guidance, Jason Hill broke the 1,000-yard mark twice (2005-06), becoming the only WSU receiver with two 1,000-yard campaigns. Last season he mentored freshman Marquess Wilson who registered 1,006 receiving yards en route to receiving multiple Freshman All-America honors.

Additionally, six different receivers have recorded 1,000-yard seasons under Levenseller while 10 different players have spent time with NFL clubs.

Prior to returning to Washington State, Levenseller coached wide receivers for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League (1990-91), where he mentored the league's receiver of the year in 1990 (Darrell Smith) and 1991 (Raghib Ismail). He began his coaching career in 1986 with the British Columbia Lions of the CFL, working with wide receivers as a guest coach.

A sixth-round draft pick by the Oakland Raiders of the 1978 NFL Draft, Levenseller spent three years in the NFL with Buffalo, Tampa Bay and Cincinnati, was a member of the Grey Cup-winning Edmonton Eskimos in 1982 and concluded his playing career with Calgary, 1983-85, of the CFL.

Levenseller completed his WSU playing career by being selected to the Pacific-8 First Team, the AP All-West Coast First Team and the AP All-America honorable mention squad in 1978. Levenseller caught 121 passes in his career to rank third on WSU's all-time list and eighth on the league list. His 2,061 career receiving yards ranked second on WSU's all-time list as he was one of only seven receivers to top 2,000 yard mark in Pac-8 history. In 1976 he became WSU's first-1,000-yard receiver when he caught 67 passes for 1,124 receiving yards.

In 1992 he was inducted into the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame and in 2006 was inducted into the Pacific Northwest Football Hall of Fame. He and wife Allison have a son, J.T., and daughter, Jordan, who is a member of the WSU volleyball team.

Steve Morton

Offensive Line

Second Season

Cougar football player and former assistant coach Steve Morton returned to Pullman for his second stint on the Cougar coaching staff in January, 2010.

The 2011 season marks Morton's 37th as a collegiate coach. Last season the Cougar offensive line helped the offense to an improvement of 75 yards per game from 2009. The passing game accounted for 55 of those yards while the offense scored 6.8 points more per game.

In 2010 he began his second stint as a member of the Cougar staff. Morton's first coaching opportunity came in 1975 as a Washington State University graduate assistant. He became a full-time assistant coach at his alma mater in 1977 and spent the next 10 seasons in Pullman. He mentored such Cougar greats as Mike Utley, Dan Lynch, Jim Michalczik, Pat Beach, Chris Dyko and Paul Wulff.

In 1987 Morton followed then-WSU Head Coach Jim Walden to Iowa State University, where he spent the next five seasons. He returned to the Pac-10 in 1992, joining the University of Washington staff as offensive line coach. After seven seasons and five bowl appearances, he moved to the University of Southern California (1999-2000). He was at the University of Nevada (2001) before completing three seasons (2002-2004) as the Stanford University offensive line coach.

Morton has coached five Pac-10 Morris Trophy winners, signifying the conference's best lineman, including Lynch in 1984. Additionally he has mentored four first-team All-America players, and NFL first-round draft choices Kwame Harris of Stanford and Lincoln Kennedy of Washington.

Prior to rejoining the Cougar staff, Morton spent five seasons at San Jose State, the first as offensive line coach and the final four adding offensive coordinator to his duties.

As a player, he was a center and offensive guard on the 1973 and 1974 Washington State teams. He graduated in 1977 with a degree in physical education.

Morton and his wife Karen have two adult children, son Beau and daughter Bethany. He also has a son-in-law, Zech Bordon, and a grandson, Caleb.

Rich Rasmussen

Tight Ends
Recruiting Coordinator
Fourth Season

Rich Rasmussen made the move from Eastern Washington to WSU with Cougar Head Coach Paul Wulff in 2008 after the two worked together as members of the Eagles staff for 11 years.

Rasmussen coaches the Cougar tight ends and also serves as the recruiting coordinator. In 2009, the first full recruiting year under Wulff, the Cougar recruiting class ranked 43rd nationally, the highest ranking in the previous five season. In 2010 Rasmussen's efforts on the recruiting trail landed WSU a class ranked No. 38. Under Wulff's direction Rasmussen has expanded the Cougars recruiting to a national level, with recent signees from Hawai'i, Texas, Florida and into the midwest.

Prior to WSU, Rasmussen spent nine years coaching Eagle tight ends and during his stint at EWU spent time as director of football operations, recruiting coordinator, team travel coordinator and summer camp coordinator, in addition to his coaching duties.

Rasmussen began coaching at Eastern in 1996 as a student assistant coach on defense, then helped with the offensive line in 1997. He coached running backs in 1998 before taking over as tight ends coach the following season, a position he held until his move to Pullman.

While at Eastern Washington he earned both his undergraduate and graduate degrees. He received his bachelor of science degree in physical education in 1998 (now known as a bachelor of arts in education), then completed his master's degree in athletic administration in 2000.

Rasmussen received an associate degree from Tacoma Community College in 1997 and is a 1983 graduate of Lincoln High School in Tacoma, Wash. He coached at Bellarmine Prep and Mt. Tahoma High Schools prior to joining the EWU staff.

He and his wife, Teri, have two sons, Josh and Jacob.

Jody Sears

Cornerbacks

Fourth Season

Jody Sears, a graduate of Washington State University and former college teammate of Cougar head coach Paul Wulff, returned to his alma mater in 2008 to coach cornerbacks when his former teammate was named head coach.

In 2010 the Cougar pass defense made great strides as opponents passed for 29 yards less per game than in 2009. The average per pass and average per catch were also less than in 2009.

Sears spent five years (2003-07) at Eastern Washington University, where he served as Paul Wulff's defensive coordinator. During his stint with the Eagles, he coached safeties, linebackers and defensive ends.

Prior to uniting with Wulff at EWU, Sears was an assistant coach at the United States Military Academy in West Point, N.Y. He served three years on the Black Knight staff, including the 2001 and 2002 season as cornerbacks coach. In 2000, during his rookie year with Army, he assisted with the defensive line.

A 1991 graduate of WSU, Sears lettered twice for the Cougars after walking on as a wide receiver. Like Wulff, he played under head coaches Jim Walden, Dennis Erickson and Mike Price during his tenure with the Cougars. He saw limited field duty during the early portion of his Cougar career, then lettered his final two years and finished with 11 career receptions for 118 yards. Sears also served as the holder for All-America placekicker Jason Hansen on field goal and extra point attempts during his senior year.

Following a brief coaching stint on the high school level, Sears served as a graduate assistant at Iowa State University, where he helped coach defensive backs and wide receivers from 1994 through 1996 for the Cyclones. He received his master's degree at Iowa State in 1996.

Sears coached at St. Ambrose University in 1998, assuming responsibilities as the defensive coordinator for the Fighting Bees, who were coached by Todd Sturdy, now WSU's offensive coordinator.

Sears, born Oct. 21, 1967, is from Pullman, Wash., and graduated from Pullman High School in 1986. He and his wife Molly have five children, Weston, Hannah Jo, J.T., Kylee Ann and Charlie Ray.

Todd Sturdy

Offensive Coordinator
Quarterbacks

Fourth Season

Todd Sturdy, a former head coach at St. Ambrose University, joined Paul Wulff's Washington State University staff in 2008 after serving as Wulff's offensive coordinator at Eastern Washington for the 2007 season.

The 2010 season was the most productive for the Cougar offense under Sturdy. The offense averaged more than 55 yards per game as compared to the 2009 campaign while scoring 6.8 more points per game in that span. The team had eight 300-plus yards of total offense in 2010 compared to a total of six during the 2008 and 2009 seasons.

Prior to Eastern Washington, Sturdy was 85-40 in 12 seasons as head coach for the SAU Fighting Bees of Davenport, Iowa. The winningest coach in the program's history, his SAU teams won five Mid-States Football Association-Midwest League championships and had a 42-8 league record in his last seven seasons at the helm, including six straight playoff appearances. In 2006 he was NAIA Region 2 Coach of the Year, going a perfect 10-0 before a first-round loss in the NAIA Championship playoffs.

Sturdy began his coaching career after his freshman year of college, taking over the Tipton High School sophomore baseball team in the summer of 1987. He continued to coach Tipton baseball for the next four seasons as the head sophomore coach and assistant varsity coach.

Sturdy began coaching football in fall 1990 as a graduate assistant for St. Ambrose University while student teaching at Assumption High School. In the spring of 1991 Sturdy was named the director of facilities at St. Ambrose University. He then coached the secondary and special teams under Mike Woodley in 1992 and 1993 and was defensive coordinator in 1994.

In 1995, Sturdy was defensive coordinator at SAU under head coach Chuck Schrader. With seven games remaining in the season, Sturdy became interim head coach and was named the permanent head coach in December.

As a player, Sturdy was a quarterback for St. Ambrose University from 1987-1990, while he earned a bachelor's degree in history education. In 1988 he was named the team's MVP, and as team captain in 1989, received the coach's appreciation award.

Sturdy arrived at St. Ambrose via Tipton High School, where he played four sports and accumulated 14 varsity letters, three in football, two in basketball, four in track, and five in baseball (one as an eighth grader). He was named All-State as a quarterback and started at quarterback for the South team in the 1986 Shrine Bowl.

Sturdy and his wife Gina have three children, sons Keegan and Carson, and daughter, Kensington.

Chris Tormey

Linebackers

First Season

In January, 2011, Chris Tormey joined the Cougar Football staff as linebackers coach. Tormey, who grew up in Spokane, comes to Pullman after serving the past two years at the University of Hawai'i. At Hawai'i Tormey served as the special teams coach and also assisted with the safeties.

Prior to Hawaii, Tormey served as the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator at the University of Washington from 2004-08, his second stint on the Husky staff. During that time Tormey had four recruiting classes ranked in the top 35 nationally, including the 2008 class, which was ranked 14 by one national recruiting site.

Tormey spent the 2000-03 seasons as the head coach at the University of Nevada, where he guided the Wolf Pack to a 16-31 record in his four seasons. Each year his teams improved its win total, culminating in a 6-6 mark during his final season.

From 1995-99, Tormey was the head coach at his alma mater, the University of Idaho, coaching the Vandals to four winning seasons in five years. He compiled a 33-23 record and led Idaho to its first bowl appearance, a Humanitarian Bowl victory over Southern Mississippi in 1998. That year, he was named the Big West Conference Coach of the Year and led Idaho to a 9-3 record. Additionally, he was named the Big West/Mid-American/NCAA I-A Independent Coach of the Year by The Sporting News in 1998 and helped the Vandals break school attendance records by averaging more than 25,000 per home game in 1999, his final season at Idaho.

For 11-years, from 1984 to 1994, Tormey worked as an assistant coach at Washington. He coached tight ends, outside linebackers and the secondary. In 1993, he was the acting defensive coordinator and was named to that position by head coach Jim Lambright for the 1994 campaign. During his tenure the Huskies appeared in 10 bowl games and won the 1991 national championship.

Tormey began his college coaching career in 1980 as a graduate assistant at Washington for two years, and then took the defensive line coaching position at Idaho in 1982 for two years under head coach Dennis Erickson.

A native of Omaha, Neb., Tormey grew up in Spokane where he attended Gonzaga Prep. He was later an all-Big Sky Conference linebacker at Idaho from 1976-77 during his three seasons. As a senior, he served as team captain before earning a degree in education in 1978.

Following graduation, Tormey signed a free-agent contract with the Washington Redskins.

Dave Ungerer

Running Backs

Special Teams

Second Season

Dave Ungerer joined Coach Wulff's staff in February, 2010, after spending the previous season at Elon University, where his special teams units ranked among the top 50 in four categories, including fifth in kickoff coverage as Elon surrendered just 17.06 yards per return.

Last season the Cougar special teams improved in many statistical categories, including kickoff coverage (8.7 yards per game), kick return average (3 yards per game) and net punting (2.7 yards per game).

From 2007-08 Ungerer served as the special teams coach at Oregon State University. In his first season he worked with All-Pacific-10 Conference placekicker Alexis Serna, who ended his career as the Beavers' all-time leading scorer and the Pac-10 record-holder with 144 consecutive extra point conversions. The Beaver kickoff coverage team ranked first in the Pac-10 and fifth nationally. In 2008 he coached All-Pac-10 First Team punt returner Sammie Stroughter and second team kick returner James Rodgers. As a unit overall, the Beavers ranked first in the conference in kickoff coverage (18.7 yards) and third in kickoff returns (23.4 yards).

Prior to Oregon State Ungerer spent four seasons at the University of Alabama as the special teams and tight ends coach, working alongside WSU's current assistant head coach/co-defensive coordinator Chris Ball. During his tenure the Crimson Tide blocked 13 kicks and returned five punts and two kickoffs for touchdowns.

Ungerer's first stint in the Pac-10 came in 2002 when he spent one season as the special teams/tight ends coach at the University of California. In his lone season, kickoff returner LaShaun Ward ranked third in the nation in average returns, while Mike McGrath and placekicker Mark Jenkins earned All-Pac-10 honors. In addition, Cal's kickoff return team was third in the nation and first in the Pac-10.

Ungerer arrived at California after two years at Lehigh, where he assisted the program in finishing in the top 10 in the nation both years. Ungerer also spent five years at the University of Maryland, where he coached 1993 honorable mention All-American and first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference punter Scott Milanovich. He began his Maryland career as the strength coach before becoming special teams coordinator/running backs coach, a position he held for three years. Ungerer was on staff at Holy Cross from 1988-91, where the program won three-straight Patriot League crowns and compiled a record of 39-4-1, including a perfect 11-0 ledger in 1991.

Ungerer has also coached at Davidson College (1986-87), Northeastern University (1985) and served as a graduate assistant at Rutgers University (1983-84).

The Edison, N.J., native is a 1980 graduate of Southern Connecticut State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and health. Ungerer and his wife Sylvia have three sons, Dominic, David and Dante.

STILLWATER, Okla. – Kendall Hunter rushed for 257 yards and four touchdowns to lead Oklahoma State to a 65-17 win over Washington State in the 2010 season-opener for both teams. A pair of first-quarter touchdowns by Hunter and a Dan Bailey field goal pushed the Cowboys out of a 17-0 lead; the Cougars regained some confidence and cut the lead to 17-10 midway through the second quarter as Nico Grasu connected on a career-best 56-yard field goal, the sixth-longest in Cougar history. On its next possession, WSU found the end zone as Jeff Tuel connected with freshman Marquess Wilson on a 48-yard touchdown pass. OSU then scored 34 consecutive points to put the game out of reach. WSU's final score came on a Logwyne Mitz one-yard touchdown run that was set up by Tuel to Wilson for 46 yards on the previous play.

• Att.: 26,356 • TV: FSN NW

PULLMAN, Wash. – Washington State scored 16 fourth-quarter points, the final three on a Nico Grasu 18-yard field goal, to cap a 23-22 Cougar victory. The win snapped a 10-game winless streak by WSU as it evened its season record at 1-1. Montana State jumped out of a 6-0 lead before James Montgomery capped a 95-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run, giving WSU a 7-6 lead. Montgomery had a 70-yard run during the drive, matching the longest by a Cougar since Derrell Hutsona raced 70 yards against California, Oct. 14, 2006. Montana State scored the next 16 points, taking a 22-7 lead entering the fourth quarter. WSU quarterback Jeff Tuel cut into the lead with a four-yard touchdown to Andrei Lintz, Lintz's first career catch. A 19-yard Tuel to Jared Karstetter pass with just over five minutes to play cut the lead to 22-20, though Tuel's pass on the two-point conversion fell incomplete. On Montana State's ensuing possession, Alex Hoffman-Ellis' interception deep in bobcat territory set up the winning field goal.

DALLAS, Texas – Kyle Padron threw for four touchdowns and ran for another as SMU defeated Washington State 35-21. Padron put the Mustangs on top early as he scampered in from 13 yards for a 7-0 lead. WSU tied the game late in the first as Jeff Tuel found Jared Karstetter for a four-yard touchdown pass. It marked the Cougars' first first-quarter touchdown on the road was since scoring one at Baylor, Sept. 12, 2008. SMU scored late in the second to take a 14-7 lead and forced a WSU punt. The return was fumbled and Kyle McCartney recovered the ball in the SMU end zone for a touchdown and a 14-14 halftime score. In the third Padron threw two touchdown passes then added one late in the fourth to seal the victory. WSU cut the final margin to 14 when Tuel found Marquess Wilson behind the defense for a 68-yard scoring pass. Wilson finished the game with six receptions for 134 yards and a score. Tuel was 18-of-33 for two scores and 284 yards.

PULLMAN, Wash. – Matt Barkley threw for 290 yards and three touchdowns to lead No. 20 USC to a 50-16 win over host Washington State. For the first time since the 2008 season, the Cougars scored on its first possession as Jeffrey Solomon found Jared Karstetter for a 29-yard strike for a 7-0 lead. It marked the first time WSU scored on its first possession since Sept. 20, 2008 against Portland State. USC struck back immediately as Stanley Havili took USC's first offensive play 59 yards for a touchdown. Two plays later, Nickell Robey stepped in front of a Jeff Tuel pass and raced 25 yards the other way for a 14-7 Trojan lead. WSU cut the lead to 21-13 as Tuel found Karstetter for a seven-yard touchdown early in the second quarter, though the Cougars drew no closer. USC scored the 29 points to put the game out of reach. Nico Grasu connected on a 44-yard field goal late to close out the scoring. Karstetter finished with a career-best eight catches for 87 yards and the two scores. Havili had 80 yards rushing and 107 yards receiving to lead the Trojans.

PASADENA, Calif. – Johnathan Franklin rushed for a game-high 216 yards, part of a 437-yard ground attack as UCLA rallied in the fourth quarter for a 42-28 victory over Washington State. UCLA raced to a 14-0 lead on rushing touchdowns by Franklin and Derrick Coleman before the Cougars found the scoreboard. Early in the second quarter Jeff Tuel found Jeffrey Solomon for a 9-yard touchdown pass to cut the lead in half. UCLA added a pair of field goals to take a 20-7 lead with 1:51 remaining in the half. Tuel led a 10-play, 80-yard drive that culminated with an 18-yard touchdown pass to Daniel Blackledge with 13 seconds remaining. WSU scored on its first two possessions of the second half, both coming on short James Montgomery touchdown runs, to take a 28-20 lead. UCLA responded with a pair of Coleman touchdown runs sandwiched around a Richard Brehaut run for the final margin of victory. Tuel ended the day throwing for 311 yards, while freshman Marquess Wilson had five catches for 118 yards, his third game this season with more than 100 receiving yards.

PULLMAN, Wash. – LaMichael James rushed for 136 yards and two touchdowns to lead No. 3 Oregon to a 43-23 victory over Washington State on Homecoming Weekend. James put the Ducks up early on a one-yard touchdown run, the first of two one-yard scores for the sophomore running back. The Cougars responded quickly as James Montgomery scored on a 26-yard run, the longest TD run of his Cougar career. On the ensuing kickoff, Anthony Carpenter's vicious hit on Kenjon Barner forced a fumble which WSU recovered on the Oregon five yard line.

Two plays later Logwone Mitz scored from one yard out to give WSU a 14-8 lead. Oregon led 29-17 at half as WSU added a Nico Grasu 50-yard field goal, his second 50-plus FG of the season. Trailing 36-23 in the third following a Daniel Blackledge 11-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Tuel, the Cougars has a chance to cut the lead to six, however Casey Matthews intercepted Tuel at the duck two-yard line, ending the threat. Oregon added a touchdown early in the fourth for the final margin of victory. Cougar wide receiver Jared Karstetter finished the game with 10 catches for 106 yards, both career-highs.

PULLMAN, Wash. – Keola Antolin rushed for 92 yards and a pair of first-half touchdowns to lead No. 17 Arizona to a 24-7 win over Washington State. Antolin had scored of nine and one yards as the Wildcats carried a 14-0 lead into halftime. That lead became 21-0 after Nic Grigsby scored from seven yards out, taking advantage of a WSU fumble on its first possession of the second half. WSU found the scoreboard late in the third quarter as Jeff Tuel found freshman Marquess Wilson for a 23-yard scoring strike. It marked Wilson's third touchdown of the season. The Wildcats added a 40-yard, fourth-quarter field goal by Alex Zendejas to close out the scoring. Wilson finished the night with six catches for 131 yards, his fourth 100-yard performance of the season, eclipsing Phillip Bobo's mark from 1990. The WSU defense held Arizona to a season-low passing total while recording six sacks and 10 tackles-for-loss. Arizona's 352 total yards were also a season low for a Cougar opponent.

STANFORD, Calif. – Stepfan Taylor rushed for a game-high 142 yards and rushed for two touchdowns as No. 12 Stanford defeated Washington State 38-28. The Cardinal jumped out to a 31-7 lead then held off a late Cougar rally to secure the win. Trailing 31-7 entering the fourth quarter, WSU quarterback Jeff Tuel found Marcus Richmond for an 11-yard touchdown pass, the first of Richmond's career. Following a Coby Fleener touchdown reception, WSU marched 80 yards in 2:25 that was capped by Tuel finding Jared Karstetter for a four-yard touchdown pass, Karstetter's second of the game. Following a Stanford punt, Tuel connected on a 74-yard strike to Marquess Wilson for the final touchdown of the game. Tuel ended with a career-high four touchdowns while Karstetter led WSU with nine receptions for 101 yards. Wilson had 150 yards, his fifth 100-plus game of the season, setting a freshman record receiving yards in a game. Freshman safety Deone Bucannon ended the game with 15 tackles, one shy of his total from the previous game. Stanford ran for 249 yards while quarterback Andrew Luck threw for 190 yards and three scores.

TEMPE, Ariz. – Quarterback Steven Threet threw for 300 yards and three touchdowns to lead Arizona State to a 42-0 victory over Washington State. Cameron Marshall opened the scoring on the Sun Devils' first possession, capping a 76-yard drive with a seven-yard touchdown run. It was the first of two touchdowns for Marshall, who also scored on a third-quarter touchdown pass from Threet. The Sun Devils took advantage of two first-half interceptions of Jeff Tuel to enter halftime with a 28-0 lead. Jamal Miles second touchdown reception of the day, an 18-yard pass from Threet, came with 11 seconds left in the first half to cap a three-play, 56-yard drive that took less than a minute. Kyle Middlebrooks closed out the scoring on the second play of the fourth quarter, rushing in from 10-yards out. WSU committed three turnovers in the game and came away empty on five red zone opportunities. The bright spot for the Cougars was senior punter Reid Forrest, who surpasses Kyle Basler as WSU's all-time leader in punts (256) and punt yards (10,794).

PULLMAN, Wash. – Shane Vereen rushed for a game-high 112 yards and two touchdowns as California earned its first road win of the season with a 20-13 victory against Washington State. Following a scoreless first quarter, Washington State struck first on a 10-yard touchdown run by Logwone Mitz, his third rushing TD of the season. Cal quickly answered with Vereen going in from two yards out. Late in the half freshman Andrew Furney connected on his first collegiate field goal, a 51-yard effort as WSU carried a 10-7 lead into halftime. It marked the first halftime lead against a conference opponent since the Apple Cup during the 2007 season. Jeremy Ross raced in from 27 yards out on Cal's opening possession of the second half while Vereen closed out the scoring midway through the fourth quarter with a one-yard run. Furney added a 48-yard field goal for the Cougars final total. WSU quarterback Jeff Tuel threw for 92 yards on the day, his first game of 2010 that he failed to reach the 200-yard mark. C.J. Mizell led WSU's defense with 12 tackles, including two for loss, while another freshman, Deone Bucannon, added 10 tackles.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Washington State ran for a season-high 221 yards and three touchdowns, while quarterback Jeff Tuel threw for another as the Cougars upset Oregon State, 31-14, in Corvallis. The win snapped a 16-game conference skid and earned WSU its first road victory since the end of the 2007 season. Following a scoreless first quarter, Logwone Mitz scored from a yard out to give WSU the 7-0 lead. James Montgomery followed with a one-yard score to give WSU a 14-0 halftime lead. It marked the first time the Cougars have held an opponent scoreless in the first half since leading 10-0 against Stanford, Nov. 10, 2007 at Martin Stadium. WSU grabbed its biggest lead of the season early in the third quarter when Tuel found Marquess Wilson for a 33-yard touchdown pass. The beavers added a pair of Markus Wheaton touchdown receptions to cut the lead to 10, but Chantz Staden closed out the scoring for WSU with a 5-yard touchdown run late to seal the victory. Tuel ended his day completing 10 of 15 passes for 157 yards, while also running for a career-high 79 yards.

WASHINGTON 35, WSU 28

Dec. 4, 2010

• Martin Stadium

• Att.: 30,157 • TV: FSN Northwest

PULLMAN, Wash. - Jeff Tuel connected with freshman Marquess Wilson for a game-tying touchdown with just over four minutes remaining, but Jake Locker made up for two critical turnovers by throwing a 27-yard touchdown pass to Jermaine Kearse with 44 seconds left to seal the victory in the 103rd meeting between the two teams. Tuel threw for 298 yards and three touchdowns for the Cougars, connecting with senior wide receiver Daniel Blackledge seven times for 132 yards and a touchdown. The Huskies led 28-14 in the fourth-quarter before the Cougs mounted a comeback. Unfortunately, Washington State left too much time on the clock as Locker led the Huskies on an 88-yard drive, capped by his fade-route pass to Kearse that beat Washington State cornerback Nolan Washington. It was the second time Locker and Kearse hooked up for a score, as the duo connected for a 66-yard TD on the third play of the second half. Washington running back Chris Polk ran for a career-high 284 yards on 29 carries and scored two touchdowns.

THE BROADCAST TEAM

Hall of fame announcer Bob Robertson Sr. is in his 45th season calling Cougar football action. When Cougar fans gather and talk about Saturday afternoons in the fall on the Palouse, football and Robertson just naturally become part of the conversation.

The long-time Cougar broadcaster began his association with WSU football in 1964 and with the exception of a three-year period in 1969-71, he's been calling the Cougar action ever since.

Robertson's peers have selected him Washington Sportscaster of the Year 12 times, validating what Cougar fans have known for years - he is simply the best. In 1995 he was named the State Broadcaster of the Year.

Robertson was inducted into both the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame and the Inland Empire Hall of Fame in 2001-02, and in August 2004 received the prestigious Chris Schenkel Award at ceremonies held at the College Football Hall of Fame in South Bend, Ind. At the same time he became the first broadcaster west of the Mississippi to be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame - broadcaster division. He is also a member of the Pierce County Hall of Fame.

Bob's association with WSU runs deeper than just football broadcasts. For 23 years he was the voice of Cougar Basketball, including several NCAA tournament teams. In 1978-79, he was named WSU's Dad of the Year and he also worked with the WSU Cougar Club on the west side in the 1980s.

Robertson was born in Fullerton, Calif., during spring training of the Seattle Indians of the Pacific Coast League. At the time his father was a player for the Seattle club.

After graduating from Blaine (Wash.) High School, he attended Western Washington University in Bellingham, where he launched his broadcasting career. His first broadcasting exposure came as a young actor for the Canadian Broadcasting Company in Vancouver, B.C., then bloomed while attending college.

In 1948 Robertson signed to play professional baseball, but a year later gave up playing to become the voice of the Wenatchee Chiefs of the Western International League, his first full-time broadcasting opportunity.

Among his many accomplishments, Robertson has:

- Spent 25 years calling Pacific Coast League baseball in Seattle and Tacoma;
- Broadcast professional soccer in Seattle, Tacoma and Portland; he was Washington's Soccer Man of the Year in 1983;
- Broadcast hockey, boxing, wrestling and hydroplane races
- Had his "cup of coffee" in major league baseball, broadcasting some Seattle Mariner games in the late 1990s
- Served as television sports anchor in the Seattle market for 25 years, including time with KSTW (called KTNT 1956-70, then KSTW 1976-83) and KMO (he helped put them on the air);
- Currently voice of the Spokane Indians baseball team and Pacific Lutheran University basketball;
- Served as the television voice of Notre Dame football and basketball for two years in the 1950s.

This past spring Bob's wife, Joanne, passed away after 59 years of marriage. They have four children, Hugh, Janna, John and Rebecca, and seven grandchildren. Robertson has resided in Tacoma since 1950, with the exception of his stint with Notre Dame.

As much as Robertson is part of Cougar Football Saturday, so is his closing broadcast signature, "Always be a good sport, be a good sport all ways."

Joining Robertson in the broadcast booth for the 11th year is a name familiar very to Cougar football fans, former Cougar head coach (1978-86) Jim Walden. Walden is the third-winningest coach in WSU football history.

Known for his wit and charm, Walden later coached at Iowa State, then in 1995 moved into the broadcasting profession, both in radio and TV, while continuing to live in Iowa.

Walden, who beat every team in the Pacific-10 Conference while at WSU, is perhaps best remembered for resurrecting a struggling program that had three coaches in three years, and for guiding WSU to the 1981 Holiday Bowl, the Cougars' first bowl appearance in 51 years. Walden, inducted into the WSU Athletic Hall of Fame in the fall of 2009, now lives in Harrison, Idaho.

Patrolling the sidelines and locker rooms is KXLY's Bud Nameck, who also handles the network's play-by-play duties during the Cougar men's basketball season. Nameck served as sports director for at KXLY for 13 years, 1982-95, and was the voice of Cougar football for FOX Sports Northwest for 14 years, 1988-2001.

He is currently the Cougars Sports Radio Network Director and resides in Spokane with his wife Diane and daughter Kelsey.

THE WASHINGTON STATE IMG COLLEGE NETWORK

Cougar football games are broadcast live on the radio throughout the Pacific Northwest via the Washington State IMG College Sports Network. The 25-station football network - one of the largest in the Pac-10 - reaches from British Columbia to Oregon and can be heard worldwide via the internet and XM Satellite radio. The men's basketball network includes 17 stations.

IMG College produces the Washington State IMG College Sports Network, which also features radio coverage of WSU men's basketball, baseball, women's basketball and women's volleyball, and the Cougar Coaches Show in the fall and winter seasons.

Cougar football broadcasts begin an hour before kickoff, carry through the game and conclude with post-game interviews with players and coaches.

IMG College, founded in 1992 in its corporate home of Winston-Salem, NC, manages corporate marketing opportunities and on-site promotions at WSU football and basketball games as well as oversees sales for all signage at Martin Stadium, Friel Court at Beasley Coliseum and all Cougar competition sites.

Elson S. Floyd

President

Elson S. Floyd is Washington State University's 10th president. He took office in May of 2007 after serving as president of the four-campus University of Missouri System during 2002-2007.

"Excellence, quality, and accountability" are keystones to his administration leading WSU. He puts high priority on WSU being a research leader and having a global presence. Furthermore, he endorses diversity of thought, opinion, perspective, viewpoints, race and ethnicity as characteristics of a world-class university.

Floyd served as president of Western Michigan University from 1999 to 2002, and held several administrative positions at the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, including deanships in student affairs and the College of Arts and Sciences.

Previously, he spent two years as executive director of the state of Washington Higher Education Coordinating Board, the agency responsible for statewide coordination, planning, oversight, policy analysis and student financial aid programs for Washington's post-secondary education system. From 1990 to 1993, he served as vice president for student services, vice president for administration and executive vice president at Eastern Washington University.

He began his career in 1978 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he held deanships in the Division of Student Affairs, the General College and the College of Arts and Sciences. From 1988 to 1990, he was assistant vice president for student services for the UNC system office, where he helped develop and articulate student affairs and academic affairs policy for the 16-campus university system.

A native of Henderson, N.C., Floyd holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and speech, a master of education degree in adult education, and a doctor of philosophy degree in higher and adult education, all from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

Floyd and his wife, Carmento Floyd, have two grown children.

Anne McCoy

Senior Associate Director of Athletics/SWA

Veteran intercollegiate athletics administrator Anne McCoy has served Washington State University since 2001 and was promoted from associate director to senior associate director of athletics in 2004. Her appointment to senior woman administrator came in the summer of 2007.

In her capacity as senior associate director of athletics, she is charged with overseeing all aspects of WSU's athletic budget and supervises several areas with the department including the business office, equipment, computer and football operations, and event management and facility operations. She also serves as a liaison for men's and women's basketball.

McCoy currently serves on several Pac-12 Conference committees, including the Senior Woman Administrator Television Committee and on the Nominating, Women's Basketball Tournament and Diversity Leadership Initiative Review committees. She has also been appointed chair of the NCAA Women's Rowing Committee and is a past vice president of the Pac-10 Conference.

A Wisconsin native, McCoy earned a bachelor's degree in sports management in 1989 from the University of Massachusetts. While an undergraduate, she worked for the Pittsburgh Penguins professional hockey organization, expanding the club's season ticket base. McCoy also served an internship as the assistant athletic business manager at the University of Connecticut, and was instrumental in designing and implementing a comprehensive computerized budget-tracking system.

McCoy served in several capacities at the University of Maine from 1989-1995, lastly as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator. At Maine, she supervised men's basketball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's swimming and softball in addition to the athletic business office, ticket office, retail store and cheerleading staff and operations. She took a similar administrative positive at St. Louis University from 1995-96.

In 1996, McCoy moved west, joining the staff at Portland State University as associate director of athletics and senior woman administrator, and was promoted to senior associate director of athletics in 1998. At PSU, she managed all internal staff and the daily operations of the department, representing the director of athletics as needed. McCoy also supervised men's and women's golf, cross country/track and field, and women's volleyball, soccer, tennis and softball.

McCoy and her husband Brian have two children, daughter Taylor and son Jake.

Ken Casavant

Faculty Athletics Representative

Professor Ken Casavant, a member of the Washington State University family since 1967, currently serves as WSU's Faculty Athletics Representative to the Pac-12 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association. For the 2010-11 academic year he served as president of the Pac-10, a role he also served in 2000-01, and recently was on the NCAA Division I Management Council.

Casavant came to WSU as a graduate research assistant in the Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics. He was named an assistant professor in 1971, an associate professor in 1975 and a full professor in 1980.

In 2004, Casavant received the Shalin Excellence award for Leadership for the University, having had the honor several years earlier of giving the Distinguished Faculty Address, the University's oldest award and also receiving the Shalin Excellence in Public Service award for the University. In 1979, Casavant received the R.M. Wade award for outstanding teacher in the college of agriculture at WSU, and in 1990, he earned the distinguished WSU Faculty of the Year award. Casavant was elected vice-chair (1991-92) and chair (1992-93) of the WSU Faculty Senate and has been accorded the Distinguished Teacher award by the American Agricultural Economics Association. He was named Distinguished Scholar by the Western Agricultural Economics Association in 2003 for his nationally recognized work as a transportation economist.

During his tenure at WSU, Casavant has served as associate director for the Washington State Transportation Center (1984-87) and the interim Vice-Provost for Academic Affairs and interim Vice-Provost for Research (1998).

The North Dakota native is a 1965 graduate of North Dakota State University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in agricultural economics. He received his master's degree from NDSU, followed by a Ph.D., from WSU in 1971.

Ken and his wife Dorothy have two grown daughters, Michele and Colette and one grandson, Raphael.

Bill Moos

Director of Athletics

William H. (Bill) Moos began his duties as Washington State University Athletics Director April 15, 2010. Moos, a WSU Distinguished Alumnus Award recipient and former athletics director at the University of Montana and the University of Oregon, was named athletics director by WSU President Elson S. Floyd Feb. 24, 2010.

In little more than a year Moos has wasted no time in making his impact felt in Cougar Athletics, spearheading a department-wide rebranding effort with Nike, securing a 10-year, $35 million marketing rights agreement with IMG College and gaining preliminary Regents approval for a nearly $80 million addition and remodel of Martin Stadium, including a 90,000-square-foot football operations building which will serve as the stadium's showpiece. Additionally, a center hung video board in Beasley Coliseum will be installed prior to the 2011-12 season.

Moos has enjoyed a long and distinguished career in collegiate athletics, most recently as the University of Oregon director of athletics from 1995-2007. While at Oregon he oversaw a 17-sport athletic department that grew to national prominence during his tenure.

Oregon's annual athletic department budget grew from $18.5 million in his first year to more than $40 million by 2007, becoming 100 percent self-sufficient during that time. Under his direction the Duck Fund donor base increased from 4,930 to 12,290, resulting in an annual gifts increase from $4.1 million to $15.3 million.

Moos initiated more than $160 million in facility improvements while at Oregon. Included in that was the $90 million Autzen Stadium renovation in 2002, which added 12,000 new seats, 32 new suites, a new Club at Autzen and a new press box to the stadium. In his 12 years the Ducks ranked first in Pac-10 football attendance 11 times, reaching 100 percent capacity in each of those seasons.

Additional facility improvements included the opening of the $14.6 million Ed Moshofsky Sports Center and Papé and Kilkenny Fields project, as well as an expansion of the varsity athletic weight room, indoor and outdoor tennis facilities, and renovations to McArthur Court and Hayward Field.

During Moos' tenure, Oregon athletics captured 13 Pac-10 championships across six different sports. He increased opportunities for women by adding two intercollegiate programs, soccer and lacrosse, and negotiated an all-inclusive shoe and apparel contract with Nike, one of only 14 in the country at the time.

From an academic standpoint during Moos' tenure, Oregon student-athletes collected 722 academic all-conference selections, 34 Academic All-America selections, nine NCAA post Graduate Scholars and one NCAA Top VIII Award. Moos assumed the duties of director of athletics in July 1995, after five years in the same position at the University of Montana. During his Montana tenure, he created an academic support program and hired its first athletic academic coordinator, developed a facility enhancement plan that created more than $4 million in improvements, and lifted the school's fund-raising efforts to show a 300 percent increase in private and corporate gifts.

During his Montana tenure (1990-95), he created an academic support program and hired its first athletic academic coordinator, developed a facility enhancement plan that created more than $4 million in improvements, and lifted the school's fund-raising efforts to show a 300 percent increase in private and corporate gifts.

Academically, Montana student-athletes were equally successful as the athletic department achieved a graduation rate 20 percent higher than the general university enrollment. Under Moos' watch Montana garnered 269 academic all-conference selections, five Academic All-Americans and two NCAA Post Graduate Scholar winners.

Moos began his athletics career in 1982 as assistant athletics director at Washington State University and also served as the school's associate director (1988-90). At Washington State, he was director of development for more than five years and associate director for nearly two years, supervising all external operations. Prior to that, he managed and owned private businesses in Washington and Oregon for eight years.

He was a student assistant football coach at Washington State for the 1973 season, then spent part of 1974 in Washington, D.C., serving as a government intern.

Raised on a wheat and cattle ranch in eastern Washington, Moos (1-3-51) attended high school in Olympia when his father served in the governor's cabinet.

Moos earned his bachelor's degree in history from WSU and was a three-year letterman in football before concluding his collegiate career by representing Washington State in the 1972 East-West Shrine all-star game in San Francisco. He served as co-captain on the Cougars' 1972 squad and garnered All-Pac-8 Conference First Team honors.

Moos and his wife Kendra have three daughters: Christa, Brittany and Kaiti; and two sons, Bo and Benjamin.
